NOTICE TO PROPRIETORS OF CERTAIN LANDS IN THE STATE OF MAINE.

THE Legislature of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by a Resolve passed 1st April 1836 directed the Land Agent of said Commonwealth, to give notice to sundry proprietors of lands in the State of Maine, who were required by a condition contained in the original deeds of conveyance from the Commonwealth to place a certain number of families on their respective tracts, and requiring them to furnish evidence of the fulfillment of said condition, or pay the sum of $30 for each family deficient on the first day of June 1836, or the lands would be declared forfeited.

Pursuant to said Resolve notice was soon after given to all the proprietors of lands subject to said condition most of whom, have complied therewith and removed the incumbrance. The proprietors however of the following townships or tracts have not responded to the notice neither have they (so far as is known in this office) settled for or complied with said condition viz. In the County of Cumberland—a gore of land lying between the towns of Raymond and Otisfield, formerly conveyed to Samuel Phillips.

County of Franklin—Township Letter D conveyed to Jonathan Gardner, and number two and number three in the third range.

County of Oxford—Letter A No ... now the town of Riley and A, No 3 now the town of Newry.

County of Somerset—A half township No 2 1st Range north of Bingham's Kennebec purchase, granted to the Trustees of Sandwich Academy.

County of Penobscot—Township No 3 on the west side of Penobscot River granted to the Maine Literary and Theological Institution, now the town of Argyle, South half of township No 3 8th range North of the Waldo patent granted to C Drowne and others and the north half of township No 6 9th range granted to the Trustees of Warren Academy.

County of Washington—Township No 3 1st range west of Passamaquoddy River granted to Samuel Hinckley, No 1 4th range do granted to Williams College, now called Vanceborough and a half township on the Eastern boundary line granted to the Trustees of Limerick Academy now called New Limerick.

The undersigned is required by a late resolve of the Legislature of Massachusetts passed the 14th day of March last again to give notice to delinquent proprietors and to take such measures as he may deem to be necessary to recover to the Commonwealth the possession of any of the above named townships or tracts of land from such proprietors as shall have failed on the first day of December next of complying with the requisition of the Resolve of the first day of April 1836.

Notice to Mill Owners.

THE undersigned having purchased one half of the right of making vending and using VALENTINE'S PATENT CAST IRON WATER WHEELS for the United States have at a great expense fitted up patterns for casting twenty one different sizes of these Wheels which are particularly adapted to the various heads of water for which they may be wanted.

Upwards of two hundred of these Wheels have been put in operation in this State within the past year giving perfect satisfaction to the purchasers.

A model of these Wheels was tested at Lowell Mass the past summer by a Board of Engineers composed of Ithamar A Beard and James B Francis Esqs of Lowell and F A Straw Esq of Manchester and it was afterwards placed in the hall of the Mechanics Fair at their last exhibition in Boston and received the only diploma awarded on water wheels.

We annex an extract from the certificate of E A Straw Esq one of the board of engineers giving a statement of the experiments made with the model at Lowell which establishes the great superiority of the Valentine Wheel over any of the kind in use.

MANCHESTER July 11 184

Dear Sir—I send you the results of several experiments made at Lowell the other day with your Model of Valentine's Patent Reacting Wheel. I consider the trial to have been a very fair one and the results are certainly very creditable to your wheel. I think they prove conclusively that your wheel is at least 50 per cent stronger than any of the Tub or Reacting Wheels now in general use.

The coefficient of effect, or percentage of power derived from well constructed Breast or Overshot Wheels acting under favorable circumstances is usually reckoned at 66 per cent and that of Undershot Tub and Reacting Wheels at 33 per cent but in some cases out of ten in practice it ... will be found that the power derived from Breast Wheels will not exceed 60 per cent of the power applied or ... derived from Tub Undershot or Reacting Wheels 25 per cent of the power applied ... I know of well constructed Tub Wheels acting apparently under favorable circumstances that do not give a coefficient of effect equal to 20 per ct.

With the results of your wheel before us it needs no arguments to show how vastly superior it is to such Wheels as I have mentioned. The least result obtained from your wheel gives us about 42 per cent of the power applied which is nearly double of the power that could be derived from the common wheels before mentioned acting under the same circumstances.

I have added nothing to the coefficient of effect for the friction of the wheel and apparatus which according to our measure ... was 40 lbs or ... of the heaviest weight raised. If this were added ... perhaps it should be to get at the actual effect of your wheel, it would give us the result of all the trials a coefficient of effect of 50 per cent ... I have to be ... in saying it ... result that may be obtained from any wheel similar to the model well constructed and acting under favorable circumstances.

Experiments Nos 1 2 and 3 were made without back water. Ex No 1 400 lbs lifted 9½ feet—fall 5 08 feet—effect 42 8 10 per cent. 2 400 lbs lifted 9½ feet—fall ... 08 ft —effect 41 9 10 per cent. 3 ... lbs lifted 9 12 ft—fall 5 7 feet—effect 42 5 10 per cent.

The mean of experiments No 1 2 and 3 would be 42 4 10 per cent ... the friction ... all an average of about 4 per cent which may be considered as the effect of your wheel ... ng free from back water.

In experiments Nos 4 5 and 6 the wheel was immersed in back water but was very evidently overloaded.

In experiments Nos 7 8 and 9 wheel was immersed in back water.

Ex No 7 90 lbs lifted 19 1 2 feet high—fall 4 006 ft—effect 4 3 10 per cent 8 ... lbs lifted ... ft—fall 4 01 ft—effect 53 3 10 per cent ... lbs lifted 9½ feet—fall 4 01 feet—effect 48 1 10 per cent.

The mean of experiments 7 8 and 9 would be 48 6 10 per cent besides the friction in all an average of about 52 per cent which may be considered as the effect of your wheel when working just immersed in back water.

EXCELLENT WATER POWER FOR MILLS AND MANUFACTURING PURPOSES.

THE excellent water power at the outlet of the Great East Pond in the town of Newport County of Penobscot and State of Maine is now offered for sale in such parts as purchasers may desire. This water power combines three essential advantages an unfailing supply of water the pond covering a large portion of the town and raised with little expense or damage freedom from all risk as to freshets, and is never frozen. It is situated in the heart of rapidly increasing and thriving agricultural county and is only twenty three miles distant from the city of Bangor.

There is now situated on this outlet a Tannery an Iron Foundery and Machine Shop and a Saw Mill and a Grist Mill.

The owners wish to dispose of a privilege sufficient for driving a large amount of machinery and also of several acres of land adjoining or of portions of the same to be used for various manufacturing purposes.

It is believed that the advantages here offered are rarely equalled and never excelled, and that the terms of sale will be such as to be worthy the attention of capitalists and others who may wish to engage in manufactures.

Dr. S. O. Richardson's CELEBRATED SHERRY WINE BITTERS.

THE Proprietor of this Medicine offers to the Public the result of an extensive practice and a thorough investigation of the laws which govern the human system.

It cannot be denied, by those who have become acquainted with the singular virtues of these Bitters that they possess a pre-eminence over all others now in use for the diseases which they profess to cure.

It is well known that most diseases arise from a derangement of the Stomach and Bowels, in youthful adult and declining life.

———"The stomach crammed with every dish,
A tomb of roast and boiled, and flesh and fish,
Where bile and wind and phlegm and acid, jar,
And all the man is one intestine war."

The extensive sympathies which subsist between these and every other part of the living body is the foundation of nervous diseases of all kinds,—Irregular Appetite, Languor, Drowsiness Wandering Pains, Headache, Lowness of Spirits, &c.

And these, in their turn, give birth to Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Jaundice, Piles, Fevers, Inflammatory Humors, Coughs, and a host of diseases which embitter life and poison all sources of enjoyment.

The distinguished character of these Bitters is most striking; their operation being more or less powerful according to the violence of the disease. When used in appropriate quantity, in cases of slight derangement of the Stomach and Bowels caused by costiveness or a slight bilious difficulty and the like, where nature needs assistance to prevent more serious consequences they will be scarcely felt.

One the contrary, in obstinate cases, they frequently operate more powerfully, causing two or three evacuations daily, until the circulating fluid becomes purified. This accomplished, they act on the system in connexion with our food, each receiving mutual assistance until the constitution is restored to a state of health and renewed vigor.

SWELLING OF THE BODY FROM HEAD TO FOOT, CURED!

BOSTON (Mass) March 10 1844.

SIR—About a year since I was taken severely ill with a swelling of the body from head to foot so that I was entirely helpless. The doctor advised me to go to the Hospital, for he said he did not understand my case. The persuasion of friends induced me to try Dr Loraine's Vegetable Pills which in a few days produced a great change in my system by increasing the natural discharges causing an appetite, relieving the pain, removing the swelling, and giving me strength and a perfect cure.

BY THE QUEEN'S PATENT.
TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF BUCHAN'S HUNGARIAN BALSAM,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION!

THE great and only REMEDY for Colds Coughs, Asthma, and CONSUMPTION is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE discovered by the celebrated Dr Buchan of London, England, and introduced into the United States under the immediate superintendence of the inventor.

The extraordinary success of this Medicine, in the cure of Pulmonary diseases, warrants the American Agent in soliciting for treatment the WORST POSSIBLE CASES that can be found in the community—cases that seek relief in vain from any of the common remedies of the day, and have been given up by the most distinguished Physicians, as CONFIRMED AND INCURABLE. The Hungarian Balsam has cured and will cure the most desperate cases. It is no quack nostrum, but a standard English Medicine, of known and established efficacy.

INCONTESTIBLE PROOFS.
Of the efficacy of this Balsam in the worst forms of Consumption.

From Dr Storer of Saco, Me.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir. The Hungarian Balsam is beyond all question a most perfect and admirable preparation for Diseases of the Lungs. I have used it in my family, and in my professional practice, for more than twelve years, with the most uniform and entire success in cases of severe Pulmonary Disease, and I conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted as the most certain remedy for such diseases with which I am acquainted.

Yours Respectfully,
FREDERICK I. STORER, M. D.

Saco, May 22, 1845.

Valuable evidence from David Bugbee Esq. Bangor.

BANGOR, Sept 18, 1844.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir. At your request I sent you a report of my success as General Agent for the Hungarian Balsam. I have now had the Agency of that excellent medicine about two years, and have sold in that period, nearly twelve gross or 1728 bottles. Much of this has been used in the vicinity of Bangor [illegible] many dozens have been sent several [illegible] to Houlton and the Provinces, to Machias, Eastport &c. The success of this Balsam in the relief and cure of Pulmonary diseases is absolutely astonishing. Hundreds, I am sure, have been saved from a premature grave by this medicine [illegible] supposed to be past all hope. I have been restored to comparative health and the last moments of the dying have been rendered comfortable by its use. In cases of children afflicted with severe and obstinate coughs, it has been employed with great success. Several instances of this have come under my personal knowledge. Indeed this is a great medicine. Its reputation is established here, and the sales are constantly increasing.

Yours truly
DAVID BUGBEE

Another Life Saved.

BATH, Me. Feb 24 1845.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir. I take much pleasure in giving you a statement of the beneficial effects of Buchan's Hungarian Balsam, in my daughter who had been for a number of years afflicted with a bad cough, pain in the side, raising blood and all those premonitory troubles which attend that insidious disease, Consumption. I employed a physician who attended her at a great expense, and then advised the consultation of a celebrated physician in a neighboring town, and still greater expense and after a number of visits from the advising physician, and the continuance for some time of the family physician he declared he could do no more for her. He had done all that he could, or I could see no benefit from it. I then employed a Botanic Physician for some time who seemed to do her no good, but did not reach the root of the disease. I was then advised by a friend to try Buchan's Hungarian Balsam. I have used six bottles with a most astonishing effect. It has restored her strength, cured her entirely of her cough and pain in the side and she is now attending to her accustomed duties. It is now seen wonderful but it is no more strange than true. [illegible] I would advise all who [illegible] to suffer not to take this medicine in season, and not wait till all hope is past, although this case has terminated so fortunately. I thus have I paid between one and two hundred dollars for physic and medicine while four or five dollars worth of the HUNGARIAN BALSAM has removed the disease, renewed the strength and brought on a healthy action of the system. Try it for yourselves and you will find the one half has not been told. You can put this letter in your Almanac and we will do most good, and wish that your medicine may benefit many as much as my daughter.

I remain gratefully yours, JNO. YOUNG.

P. S. I would say further that about five years ago my daughter commenced raising blood which continued at times for three years and sometimes very bad, till about two years when she commenced taking this Balsam. The first bottle stopped the raising of blood entirely and she has never been troubled with it since.

From J. E. Ladd, Apothecary, Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Me. May 27, 1845.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir. Having sold the Hungarian Balsam of Life for two years past and having personally observed its beneficial effects in many cases of lung complaints and some of them very severe, I do not hesitate to recommend it as an excellent preparation for those diseases for which it is recommended.

Very respectfully &c. J. E. LADD.

GREAT CURE AT AUGUSTA, ME.

AUGUSTA, May 27, 1845.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir. I can truly say that the Hungarian Balsam has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the lungs which was thought to be INCURABLE by all my friends by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health after being pronounced beyond the reach of medical aid by the physicians, and it is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the throat and lungs. I have recommended this Balsam to a great many persons and shall continue to do so, as I believe it to be the best thing in the world for diseases of the lungs.

Yours, truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

From Edward Mason, Druggist, Portland, Me.

PORTLAND, Me. April 17, 1845.

DR BRADLEE—Dear Sir. The Hungarian Balsam gives good satisfaction in this city and vicinity and I have no doubt from the reports I hear of its salutary effects upon invalids that it is an excellent preparation for diseases of the lungs. EDWARD MASON,

Apothecary 52 Middle street

HEAR THE PRESS.

From the Christian Observer, March 2 1845.

The public may place the utmost reliance upon the statements respecting the Hungarian Balsam, by Dr. Bradlee the American Agent, who is an old and highly respected citizen of Boston, a member of a christian church, and a man who would not for any consideration give his influence in favor of any sort of deception or imposture.

From the Thomsonian.

If any thing could reconcile us to a departure from Thomsonian principles, in the treatment of disease, it would be the extraordinary reputation of a medicine like the Hungarian Balsam, which we believe is both from careful analysis and the statement of the inventor, to be a purely vegetable compound. The effect of this medicine in cases of Consumption, is sometimes truly astonishing.

☞ Every family in the United States should be supplied with Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life, not only to counteract the consumptive tendencies of the climate but to be used as a preventive medicine in all cases of Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Side and Chest, Irritation and Soreness of the Lungs, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, Emaciation and General Debility, Asthma, Influenza, Hooping Cough, and Croup.

☞ Sold in large bottles at $1 per bottle, with full directions for the restoration of Health.

Pamphlets, containing a mass of English and American certificates and other evidence, showing the unequalled merits of this Great English Remedy, may be obtained of the Agents, gratuitously.

THE GREAT NORTHERN REMEDY.
N. H. DOWNS' VEGETABLE BALSAMIC ELIXIR,

FOR Colds, Coughs, Consumption, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Croup, Bronchitis and all diseases of the Lungs.

This medicine is purely vegetable—the result not of mere theory and speculation, but of much study and research, during years of debility and suffering; and the inventor having succeeded in curing himself, and having tested its efficacy on thousands of individuals in New England and the western States feels great confidence in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy. It operates most conspicuously in removing all morbid irritation from the Lungs and Pulmonary Organs, keeps the cough loose, promotes expectoration, and induces a degree of quiet in the system peculiarly grateful to the patient after having experienced so many days and nights of restless inquietude and suffering. Hear the testimony of those who have been benefitted by it. Hon Bates Turner, late Judge of the Supreme Court of Vermont, says, "I have been acquainted with the medicine called Downs' Elixir, for seven years past, and from its effect upon myself and in cases where I have witnessed its effect upon others, I consider it one of the most fortunate inventions ever made." Robert W. Woodruff, Esq of Summerville, N. J., after certifying to its good effects upon himself in a case of long standing internal weakness, and coughs concludes thus—"This certificate is given with the hope that it may direct the attention of all suffering from colds coughs inward weakness, &c. to this invaluable medicine."

Dr Gustavus Hills, of Ashtabula, Ohio says, "I was induced to try the Balsamic Elixir, and having used one bottle with decided advantage, I followed it with another which I hesitate not to say have had a more pleasing and permanent effect than all other cough medicines I ever used." William C. Perkins of Summersworth Great Falls N. H. says "I have used N. H. Downs' Vegetable Balsamic Elixir for phthisic and found immediate relief and do consider it the best medicine ever used by me for that complaint." H. Baily, Esq. of Canton, N. Y. concludes his certificate thus "I have no hesitation in saying to the public that the said Balsamic Elixir is the only means of my recovery and I do most cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to the public." Chaplin Nelson of Waterford Me. in a letter to the general agents dated March 10 1845, says "The agent of Downs Elixir was here last month and left one and a half dozen bottles with me, not knowing its value did not take much. I have sold all he left, and find it one of the most valuable medicines I ever had in my store to sell. I want you to send on another lot immediately by stage."

NEW AND MOST EFFECTIVE REMEDY.
DR. WOOD'S SARSAPARILLA AND WILD CHERRY BITTERS,

For the Cure of the following Diseases,

Jaundice, Liver Complaint, all Billious Complaints, Sick Headache, Heart Burn, Indigestion, Habitual Costiveness, Piles, Palpitations of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritations, Debilitated Stomach, Languor, Depression of Spirits, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Diseases, Canker, Syphilitic Diseases, Scrofula, Impurities of the Blood, Pimples, and Pustules on the Face, Hereditary Humors, Cold Sores, and all diseases arising from an injudicious use of mercury.

The attention of the invalid public and all those afflicted by any of the above diseases is respectfully called to the merits of a new and invaluable preparation from an original recipe of a distinguished physician, combining in itself the most active remedial properties of two of the very first articles in the Materia Medica.

The Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, were introduced to the public about twelve months ago, and during that period their success has been so great as to induce the proprietor to offer them with still more confidence in the full belief that by entering into more extensive use, they will prove a blessing to all those suffering from the diseases above enumerated.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

This insidious, distressing and almost indescribable complaint—the torture of civilized society has its foundation in a deranged condition of the stomach and bowels. Those afflicted by it are cut off from half the enjoyments of life [illegible] the pleasures of the table, and [illegible] Dyspepsia [illegible] At its first approach it should be checked by an attention to diet [illegible] and Salutary [illegible] DR. WOOD'S Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, [illegible] Tonic and Aperient [illegible] more & more popular. The following [illegible] certificate of the efficacy of this medicine in the cure of Dyspepsia and Indigestion, [illegible]

Col Gibbs is well known in this vicinity and cheerfully gives his testimony of the efficiency of this Medicine.

Sandwich Sept 4 1844.

Dear Sir. This is to certify that my daughter has been troubled with Dyspepsia for a number of years, attended with almost constant headache and other distressing symptoms which accompany this disease. She visited [illegible] the justly celebrated physicians of that city with no good use. By the solicitation of a friend I was induced to purchase a bottle of Dr Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters. Before taking one half of the bottle she was relieved of the headache and after taking two or three bottles the other symptoms entirely [illegible]

N. B. GIBBS.

THE UNIVERSAL COMPLAINT, HEADACHE.

Who is there that does not occasionally suffer from this distressing affliction? We meet with it among all classes conditions and sexes. The torture [illegible] [illegible]

The [illegible] certificate of C. B. Sykes will be read with interest [illegible]

New Bedford Aug. 16 1844.

Dear Sir, I find Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters all that you recommended them to be and take great pleasure in saying that I think them the best preparation of the kind ever offered to the public. [illegible] and I think that I am entirely cured by the use of your Bitters. I have used them in my family and would recommend them to every one suffering from Jaundice, Indigestion and Headache.

JOHN BAYLIES

DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS

At certain seasons of the year, and particularly in the spring, many persons are subject to depression of the spirits, accompanied by a debilitated stomach, loss of appetite, nervous irritation, general languor, and an anxiety of symptoms, which it is impossible to describe. [illegible] To do this, nothing is more effective than the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters. They are confidently recommended as the best SPRING MEDICINE ever offered to the public. One trial of their virtues will be sufficient to convince all of their invaluable properties and those who have used them will never resort to any other remedy for this painful disease destructive as it is to all happiness and usefulness in life.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Be particular and ask for Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters, and receive no others. This is the first preparation of Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry combined ever offered to the public and the great success attending its use will induce the unprincipled to counterfeit it. As a protective, each bottle has the words DR WOOD'S SARSAPARILLA AND WILD CHERRY BITTERS pressed on the glass; in a further protection each label on the bottle will be signed by the proprietor F. Thornton, Jr. Take these precautions and you will get the genuine article.

From the New Bedford Register.

Dr. Wood's Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters.—The respectability of gentlemen in this town and vicinity, who testify to the benefits, within their personal knowledge derived from the use of this Compound of Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry is such as to put to rest all doubts as to the value of these extracts to those suffering from Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache or Scrofulous diseases. When a medicine has been known to effect cures in certain cases no recommendation is needed other than a simple statement of facts. To those then who are liable to any complaints for which the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry Bitters is advertised as a remedy we would say do as others have done and find relief in the way pointed out by the proprietor of this highly popular compound.

VOTES.

PRINTED VOTES for the County of Penobscot are now ready for delivery at this office — Will some energetic Whig in each town take it upon himself to see that his town is supplied Let this be done, and then let every Whig be sure and vote on the day of election

WHIG CAUCUS.

The Whigs of Bangor are notified that a meeting will be held at the City Hall, on FRIDAY EVENING next, at half past seven o'clock, to nominate two Candidates to represent the City of Bangor in the next Legislature, and for the transaction of such other business as may be deemed advisable.

Per order of the City Committee.

sept 2

☞ We hope none of our whig friends will forget that Monday next is the day of the annual election in this state, and that if they mean to throw a decent vote in this city, they should make some preparation There is very little time to devote to this subject, and, we regret to say, very little disposition to improve what time remains The caucus on Friday evening, for the nomination of candidates, should be well attended—the right selection made and a generous support given to the entire whig ticket

The part of true patriotism requires that the whigs should be active, and bring out their entire strength at the polls There is a fine opportunity now to elect their noble candidate, FREEMAN H MORSE, secure a majority in the Legislature, and thus retain a Whig in the Senate of the United States, and redeem the State from the evils of a loco administration — Let not apathy defeat all these desirable results

Arrival of the Hull of the Steamship Bangor.

The hull of the Bangor was towed to this city yesterday afternoon on her passage from Portland The river boat Jefferson towed her a part of the way, when the Charter Oak over taking them, took her in tow and brought her up There is nothing of her wood work left with the exception of the figure head The fire literally consumed every consumable thing in and about her Her hull appears very well and but little warped or out of shape Although she appeared much better than we expected she could, it was a gloomy spectacle, that naked iron hull compared with the beautiful craft she was only a few days since We hope the present proprietors will feel able to build her up and thus enjoy the benefit to be derived from her future success. It is certain we think, that she will be built up by the present company or by new owners.

☞ Those of our friends who would like to enjoy a view of beautiful flowers will be gratified by calling at the store of Albert Noyes & Co, on Central street. We noticed there this morning an elegant display of Dahlias comprising a great variety of colors and perfection of form Mr Noyes has come to be an extensive and a very successful cultivator of this superb flower, and he has the good taste to keep a stand of them in his place of business, for his own gratification and that of his friends and the public

The Beginning—Gaine's Flurry.

A letter from Washington, to a gentleman in Baltimore, says

"There is nothing new here except that somebody, I see, has been frightening or hoaxing Gen Gaines, with a shadow of 10,000 Mexicans marching into Texas And the old gentleman has forthwith made a requisition upon the Governor of Louisiana for 1000 militia I wonder if the Texans intend to leave us to do all the fighting, if there is to be any, and remain themselves quietly at home Their decision and course of action would seem to be a deliberate design to fleece "Uncle Sam' in the shape of enormous charges for provisions, supplies, &c Think of a Steamboat being paid $1000 for starting one day sooner than its usual time, to carry important despatches to Texas It is monstrous! We shall have the Florida War over again with such improvements in extravagance as have been suggested by experience It is abominable that we shall have to pay so much for this Tyler and Polk humbug, for the especial amusement and benefit of "the Democracy""

The Shoe Business of Haverhill.

That town has been visited lately, by quite a number of Southern and Western shoe dealers, for the purpose of making their fall purchases

But few are aware of the quantity of shoes manufactured in that town About 23,000 cases were manufactured, containing one million one hundred and eighty thousand pairs, the cost of which would be between 6 and 7 hundred thousand dollars The amount paid for manufacturing the above is from $200,000 to $250,000 This is the amount estimated to be manufactured there The amount purchased by manufacturers from the adjacent towns would probably make the quantity sold and exported from Haverhill amount to nearly $1,500,000

A paragraph has been going the rounds of the papers that Miss Farley, the editor of the Lowell Offering, was robbed of a gold watch, while riding in the cars last week. It will be gratifying to our brethren of the press, who have expressed so much sympathy for the sufferer, to learn that she still retains her watch, though, we regret to say, she is at present confined to her chamber by severe illness

CINCINNATI, Aug 25

Late from Oregon and California.

The Western Expositor of the 16th inst has later accounts from Oregon and California A company arrived at Independence on Monday last, part of whom were from Oregon, and the others from California The Parties met in the wilderness on their way in Mr J Shively informed the editor of the Expositor that he left Oregon on the 19th of April last

He states that the settlers have a fine prospect for an abundant crop this year, and that they were making ample preparations to have every thing necessary for the emigration which went out the present year He informs us that he met the advance party of the Oregon emigrants who went out this year on the 8th of July last, at Green river, about 260 miles this side of Fort Hall The emigrants were traveling in detached parties, the last of whom he met only one day's travel beyond Fort Laramie Nothing had occurred to them on their route worthy of particular notice They were all well supplied with an abundance of provisions and their stock and teams had stood the trip exceedingly well with the exception of their horses These he states, were poor, and seemed much jaded and exhausted There was no sickness amongst the emigrants, He states that the number of cattle was immense! The emigrants numbered about 2,770 souls, large and small.

Owing to recent disturbances in Oregon with the Wallawalla Indians, it was anticipated that the emigrants would be harrassed by them on their route They were advised, however of this anticipated attack, and intending gathering at Fort Hall in sufficient numbers to repel any attack that might be meditated against them Mr Shively is of opinion that the settlers in Oregon will have disturbances with the Indians during the coming winter, but nothing serious was apprehended from this expected outbreak

He states that many of the settlers are in favor of organizing an independent government, thinking themselves too far from the United States for protection, unless the American government would act with more promptness and decision than it has done heretofore

Mr M Harris, better known here as "Black Harris," was in Oregon and engaged in hunting a better road than the one now traveled from Fort Hall to Oregon City

Mr Shively brought a large number of letters for the different sections of the United States

California.—From Mr Sappington, who left California on the 4th of April last, we have confirmation of the account of the recent revolution which has been published heretofore The citizens of the country have appointed "Governor of their own, but it was anticipated that another revolution would soon take place and that the old government would be reestablished He brings no other news of particular importance

Petrified Bodies.

There is a gentleman in Troy who has taken out a patent for petrifying dead bodies, or almost any other substances of a similar nature — The body after some preparation is immersed in a liquid that in the short space of fourteen days will render it as solid as a rock of marble The cost is but trifling compared with the lasting benefit rendered to those who may wish to preserve and look upon departed friends The Troy Budget says, that a boquet of fresh flowers immersed in the liquid, will in a few days be as solid and durable as though they were cut out of marble.

In Ashford, on the 21st ult. a fungus tumor, more than six inches in circumference, involving the eye ball and all its appendages, was removed, clearing the socket, by Dr Witter, of Willimantic, assisted by Drs Skinner, Adams, Richardson, and two medical students Griggs and Jarrows The patient (a Mr Dunham, of Ashford,) sustained the operation with remarkable fortitude — Hartford Courant.

PEN AND INK SKETCHES.

BY A COSMOPOLITAN

English Periodicals—Their Editors, Contributors, and Illustrators.

For the sake of introducing to the reader several writers whose contributions appear in, and whose names are chiefly mixed up with, the English periodicals, I have determined on devoting a number or two of these Sketches, to the affording some information, which may not be altogether unacceptable, respecting the floating literature of our time I am well aware that some whose eyes may fall on these columns, may regard it as an almost impertinent offer of mine, to "enlighten their darkness," but I also know that there are others who will be glad of the additional information which I am enabled to give, and, therefore, I shall go on in my own way, noting down, without reference to order or arrangement, whatever may, in my opinion, interest the general reader

What reading man or woman is there on either side of the Atlantic, who has not luxuriated in the writings of Christopher North? His "crutch" has become an old acquaintance, and the resoundings of his "knout," as it fell on the backs of such unhappy wights as Robert Montgomery, has often been heard Who has not felt the quiet and dreamlike beauty of his poetry, "softly o'er the senses stealing," or luxuriated in his poetical prose, as he describes his wanderings over loch, and moorland, or mountain? The 'pen and ink' portrait which he has given us of himself as 'Christopher North," have led us to think of him as a white-headed, benevolent man, full of the milk of human kindness, and well stricken in years Let us see how the poet really does.

A year or two since, Mr Dickens was invited to a public dinner in Edinburgh, by the good people of that celebrated city, and, for the double purpose of seeing 'Auld Reekie,' and some of its learned sons, I proceeded from Liverpool to the Athens of the North, where I arrived in time to attend the banquet This festival, however, I only mention by the way, because it was the only occasion on which I ever had the pleasure of seeing Professor Wilson, who presided on the interesting occasion

In point of personal appearance, the Editor of Blackwood's Magazine was a very different personage, indeed, from what I had imagined him to be As he passed me on his way to the president's Chair, I had a good opportunity of observing him He was upwards of six feet in height, of an athletic frame, and very carelessly dressed His hair, of a light sandy color, looked as if it had for years been perfectly independent of a comb or brush, it was pushed back from a broad ample forehead, and fell in tangled masses on the collar of his coat, which, on this occasion, was of a bottle-green color, decorated with figured brass buttons His eye was blue and laughing, and a kindly expression lurked about his mouth His complexion was anything but that of a student, and his arm, and hand seemed more fitted to wield a quarter staff than a pen The prevalent expression of his face was frank good humor No one, I think, would have taken him as the writer of the exquisite 'Trials of Margaret Lindsay,' or the pathetic narrative of 'The Foresters'

After the creature comforts had been disposed of, Professor Wilson rose to propose a toast of the day—the health of Boz, but with the matter of his speech, the journals of the day have long since made the reader acquainted As a public speaker, the Professor is nearly as attractive as a writer Notwithstanding his broad Scotch accent, which rather grates upon Southern ears, his voice is exceedingly pleasant and musical — His spoken matter much resembled, in style, the delightful essays which have, from time to time, delighted us in Blackwood, and as there was not the least hesitation in the delivery of his speech, one might almost conclude that it had been carefully composed, and then delivered from memory I have been informed, however, that such is not the case, for Wilson is invariably as much at ease on his legs, as at his desk He uses considerable action whilst speaking, and when uttering some pathetic passage, his tones are so delicately modulated, that they seem to express almost as much feeling as the words themselves Wilson, in short speaks like a Poet, and as only a true Poet can

Every reader of old "Ebony must be familiar with the name of "Delta," which is attached to some of the finest poetry which has for many years past appeared in Blackwood It is the nom de guerre of Mr D M Moir, a gentleman who, with high professional acquirements, combines a fine literary taste Mr Moir practices as a Surgeon at Musselburg, and may almost be called joint editor with Professor Wilson, for to his opinion a large number of the papers which are sent to Blackwood are referred Mr Moir was present at the dinner to which I have just referred: He appeared to be verging on sixty years of age, at the least His hair was iron grey, and thickly covered an ample and well formed cranium His features were a very pleasing expression, and in frame he seemed to be robust and strong, as country practitioners generally are When his health was proposed, he acknowledged the compliment in a brief speech, remarkable neither for manner nor matter — Looking at him, one would say, that on the whole, he had more of Æsculapius than of Apollo about him He has, however, distinguished himself in the pursuits both of Poetry and Physic, for he has written several standard works on Surgery, and the pages of Blackwood bear testimony to his powers as a poet

In a former number of this series, I have alluded to another contributor to Blackwood's Magazine—Mr Eagles, who has furnished some delightful and learned articles, on subjects connected with art, and also numerous sonnets under the name of the Sketcher Mr Eagles is a clergyman, residing a few miles from the city of Bristol is a most accomplished artist and many of his paintings have been engraved One of the most biting satires ever written, under the signature of 'The nanin the noon,' was from his pen but as it was in a great measure, local in its allusions, it is but little known on this side of the water

Another contributor of Blackwood, of some note is the author of Confessions of an English Opium Eater Mr Thomas de Quincey had the pleasure of meeting this gentleman some three years ago, in London He is a little man, with a keen penetrating eye, and delicately chiselled features his hair, which was very luxuriant fell in natural ringlets and small as he was in stature, no one, looking at him, even casually could mistake him for a common man There was a half sneer on his lip, which gave a slightly contemptuous expression to his whole features and in his conversation it was not difficult to detect the sense which he seemed to entertain of his own superiority The anecdote respecting himself and Hogg illustrates what some have called the unamiability of De Quincey The Ettrick Shepherd tells it in some such way as this Hogg, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Southey and De Quincey were one evening in Southey's garden at Keswick, (I believe) when their attention was drawn to a very beautiful meteor which happened to make its unexpected appearance in the heavens The members of the party, whilst engaged in gazing on the strange celestial visitant, uttered various conjectures as to its cause &c, and when the rest had said their say Hogg remarked, 'Hoot mon, dinna ye see its a compliment in honor of the meeting of us Poets' On this De Quincey turned round to Wordsworth, with an expression of ineffable scorn on his countenance, muttered, "Us Poets, indeed What does the fellow mean" Poor Hogg was dreadfully nettled at this, and in his reminiscences he says—"The spiteful little Opium chewer I never forgot or forgave the insult, and I never will The concluding portion of the Opium Eater's Confessions are now in course of publication in Blackwood

Looking over the last July number of Blackwood, for the present year, my eye fell upon the name of another of its contributors, a man of strikingly original genius, with whom I commenced, some years ago, in a somewhat singular manner, an intimacy which has outlived many a chance and change I refer to Dr Joseph Downes, whose striking "Tale of David the Telenwyr, or David the Harper, appeared in the number I have named Dr Downes is well known in England as the author of a work in three volumes, entitled "The Mountain Decameron," which was published some fourteen years ago It was reviewed at considerable length in Blackwood's Magazine, by Professor Wilson, and elicited from him the very highest encomiums Southey said that Downes was the Salvator Rosa of Poetry That he is a man of vast powers, of great and original genius, the perusal of his "Mountain Decameron," which is too profound ever to become popular with the many, sufficiently evinces He is a writer for the Edinburgh Review, but is not generally known as such Of late years he has contributed a few papers and Poems to Tait's and Ainsworth Magazines as well as to Blackwood's — The "Notes taken during a tour in the disturbed districts of Wales," which Blackwood lately published were from his pen.

Blackwood's Magazine has long stood at the head of the English Monthlies and is the only one of them, I believe, which has arrived at the honor of a reprint in America It has never, in the whole course of its existence, had recourse to the artifice of pictures or engravings, to make it sell Relying upon its substantial merits, it took and keeps high ground although it is notorious that solidity of learning and deep research are becoming more and more discountenanced A smattering of every thing is the fashion — Penny and Saturday Magazines are regarded as serious reading. Valentine Vox, and such foolery, is popular reading Pretty pictures, under the title of "illustrations, are become necessary to tempt the "child of larger growth" to read even utilitarian "works." Elaborate and most important works the fruits of years of labor, plied by men of powerful intellect, aided by real mental cultivation, it is well known, lie useless, and doomed to perish with their authors, from sheer distaste of this boasted age towards curious research and recondite antiquarian lore, even with guides, willing and eager to lead the way The publishers must calculate the probable demand, and their calculations, founded on their knowledge of the public taste, forbids the speculation This is well known to persons much conversant with the treasures entombed in the British Museum, and acquainted with the non-popular men of literary genius, who have devoted their lives, almost, to exploring those treasures, many with the full previous knowledge, that for these curious and valuable works, which they have spent many years in completing, there will be no sale But this is a digression.

In future papers on this subject, I shall have occasion to notice most of the leading contributors to magazine and newspaper literature, and to afford a good deal of curious information respecting the manner in which these things are managed on the other side of the water The history of many of the serial publications of the day is singular enough, and involves many interesting and valuable anecdotes of the struggles, adversities, successes, and splendid careers of their editors and contributors Celebrated designers and engravers will also come in for their share of notice—and of this class the reader will be introduced to many, with whom, at present, he has only a very limited acquaintance

I may just mention, in closing this paper, that in a letter which I very recently received from Dr Downes, he has kindly promised to forward to me, to be incorporated in this series of papers, his recollections of COLERIDGE, with whom he was very intimate, and also some personal notices of Shelley and Keats, both of whom he knew They will appear in the Atlas ere long, and will not fail, from the high character of the writer, to excite a considerable degree of interest in this country, where the genius of those gifted individuals is so justly appreciated

The Shoemakers

BY J G WHITTIER

Ho! workers of the old time styled
The Gentle Craft of Leather!
Young brothers of the ancient guild
Stand forth once more together
Call out again your long array
In the olden merry manner
Once more on gay St Crispin's day
Fling out your blazoned banner

Rap rap upon the well worn stone,
How falls the polished hammer!
Rap rap the measured sound has grown
A quick and merry clamor
Now shape the sole, now deftly curl
The glossy vamp around it,
And bless the while the bright eyed girl
Whose gentle fingers bound it!

From you along the Spanish Main
A hundred keels are ploughing,
For you the Indian on the plain
His lasso coil is throwing
For you deep glens with hemlock dark
The woodman's fire is lighting,
For you upon the oak's grey bark
The woodman's axe is smiting

For you from Carolina's pine
The rosin gum is stealing
For you the dark eyed Florentine
Her silken skein is reeling
For you the dizzy goatherd roams
His rugged Alpine ledges
For you round all her shepherd homes
Bloom England's thorny hedges

The foremost still by day or night
On moated mound or heather
Where'er the need of trampled right
Brought toiling men together
Where the free burghers from the wall
Defied the mail clad master
Than yours at Freedom's trumpet call
No craftsmen rallied faster

Let foplings sneer let fools deride
Ye heed no idle scorner
Free hands and hearts are still your pride
And duty done your honor
Ye dare to trust for honest fame
The jury Time empanels
And leave to Truth each noble name
Which glorifies the annals

Thy songs, Hans Sachs are living yet
In strong and hearty German
And Bloomfield's lay and Gifford's wit
And the rare good sense of Sherman
Still from his book a mystic seer
The soul of Behmen teaches
And England's priestcraft shakes to hear
Of Fox's leathern breeches

The foot is yours where'er it falls
It treads your well wrought leather,
On earthen floor in marble halls
On carpet or on heather
Still there the sweetest charm is found
Of matron grace or vestal's
As Hebe's foot bore nectar round
Among the old celestials

Rap rap!—your stout and bluff brogan
With footsteps slow and weary,
May wander where the sky's blue span
Shuts down upon the Prairie,
Ye slippers shine on Beauty's foot
By Saratoga's fountain
Or lead like snow flakes falling mute,
The dance on Cattskill mountain

The red brick to the mason's hand
The brown earth to the tiller's
The shoe in yours shall wealth command
Like fairy Cinderilla's!
As they who shunned the household maid,
Beheld the crown upon her,
So all shall see your toil repaid
With hearth and home and honor

Let the toast be freely quaffed
In WATER cool and brimming
"All honor to the good old Craft,
Its merry men and women!"
Call out again your long array
In the old time's pleasant manner,
Once more on gay St Crispin's day
Fling out his blazoned banner
